

Signature Resolution welcomes Roger W. Clark, experienced mediator in aviation law, to its growing roster of neutrals

(Los Angeles — June 13th, 2020) Prominent alternative dispute resolution firm Signature Resolution announced today the addition of Roger W. Clark to its team of neutrals.

Over the course of his forty-four years in law, Mr. Clark has litigated, tried, advised, and handled cases filed in state and federal courts throughout the nation. He practiced before the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth and Eleventh Circuits, where he has argued an extensive slate of cases. Mr. Clark joins Signature Resolution with a vision to establish a national aviation practice in the field of mediation

"I enjoy being a facilitator, a peacemaker. I find a lot of satisfaction in making life a little bit better for all the parties who've gone through something that's difficult," said Mr. Clark. "Litigation is challenging for the lawyers as well as for the parties, and I find value in offering my small contribution, bringing a little bit of peace to the warring parties."

Mr. Clark finds aviation law to embody the best of both worlds when it comes to his expertise and interests. He thrives on the unique challenge of navigating the state, federal, and international laws at play in this area of practice. He has a keen understanding of the trauma that survivors and victims' families endure and prides himself on playing a pivotal role in settling these cases without the further emotional toll of a trial. His expertise in this area, along with his forbearing approach, allows him to serve as an ideal peacemaker and advocate for all parties involved

Mr. Clark received his mediator training at Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine Law School; is a member of the United States District Court, Central District of California Federal Mediation Panel; and is a member of the Superior Court of California, County of Ventura State Mediation Panel.

To this day, aviation remains his passion. Mr. Clark has received his private pilot's license and teaches aviation law as a visiting Professor of Law at Rutgers Law School, where he was also honored as Adjunct Professor of the Year.

"We're thrilled to have Roger join our team," said Signature Resolution Partner and CEO Dario Higuchi. "His extensive experience in aviation law will be an incredibly valuable addition to our mediation services."
