

Signature Resolution Welcomes Craig Schloss to Panel of Neutrals

Schloss brings over 40 years of experience in labor and employment law

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (Jan. 21, 2025) - Signature Resolution, a leader in alternative dispute resolution, announces the addition of Craig Schloss to its panel of neutrals. He brings over four decades of experience with employment law and employment related trade secrets/noncompete disputes to this new role as a mediator. Known for his strategic mindset, creative problem-solving and dedication to fostering collaboration, Schloss aims to help clients achieve efficient, equitable and mutually rewarding resolutions.

“I believe that timely and thoughtful mediation provides a better path forward for all parties compared to prolonged litigation,” said Schloss. “My years of experience litigating and resolving every type of employment related dispute has taught me the importance of subject matter expertise, trust-building and finding solutions to the unique circumstances of each matter. I look forward to bringing these principles to my work at Signature Resolution.”

Schloss’s illustrious legal career includes leadership roles at renowned law firms Morrison Foerster and Jackson Lewis. While his practice primarily focused on advising and representing employers, he also represented employees in matters involving trade secrets, non-compete agreements and severance agreements. His reputation for resolving disputes early and avoiding unnecessary legal battles has made him a trusted advisor and advocate.

“We are honored to welcome Craig to our panel,” said Dario Higuchi, Signature Resolution founding partner and managing member. “His extensive legal background in employment and trade secrets law, coupled with his practical approach to conflict resolution, makes him a strong addition to our team and the clients we serve in the San Diego community.”

A graduate of the University of Illinois College of Law and the University of Arizona, Schloss has been recognized for his excellence throughout his career. His accolades include being named to Best Lawyers in America for labor and employment law and employment litigation, Super Lawyers and the San Diego Daily Transcript’s Top Attorneys list. He also holds an AV Preeminent rating from Martindale-Hubbell and has been honored as a fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America.

Beyond the courtroom, Schloss has been deeply committed to his community, serving in volunteer leadership roles and doing pro bono legal work for the Lawrence Family Jewish Community Center of San Diego and the San Diego Symphony. He has also held leadership positions within various professional organizations, including Labor and Employer Relations Association (LERA) and San Diego North County Personnel Association (NCPA).

At Signature Resolution, Schloss will leverage his extensive experience to provide impartial and strategic mediation services, helping parties navigate disputes with efficiency and empathy.

To learn more about Craig Schloss, please visit <https://signatureresolution.com/neutral-CPT/craig-schloss/>.

About Signature Resolution

Founded in 2017 in the heart of Los Angeles, Signature Resolution comprises a panel of distinguished neutrals hailing from diverse backgrounds, including respected judges and trial attorneys specializing in virtually every civil practice area. The founding partners inaugurated the organization with a vision of providing the highest level of service and convenience for attorneys and their clients. Signature Resolution's panelists offer unrivaled expertise and commitment to resolve even the most challenging legal matters. In addition to the Los Angeles location, Signature Resolution also has offices in Century City, San Diego, and Oakland. For more information about the firm's mediation, arbitration and other dispute resolution services, visit <https://signatureresolution.com>.

###